Aliso Viejo, California — Pixel Film studios has just released a new collection of social media inspired graphics, FCPX Social Mega Pack, now available on the company's store. Users will have access to over 560 social media graphics, with free and frequent updates included.

“Creatives can use the FCPX Social Mega Pack in many ways,” said Lynn Silver, Media Manager of Pixel Film Studios. “The graphics can be used as a visual storytelling aid, or video creators can use them to lead the audience to their other social media accounts. The possibilities are endless!”

Users can use presets to show social media posts on screen for better storytelling

A Variety of Unique Tools

With the FCPX Social Media Mega Pack, users can access tools including Icons, Emojis, Follow Screens, Lower Thirds, Messages, Social Media Graphics, Tags, Devices, and more. Users can take advantage of these professionally designed assets to add polish to their video projects.

Easy to Use - Just Drag and Drop

Users will need to locate the desired preset in the Titles or Generators menu, and drag it above their footage in the timeline. Then, in the inspector, users will need to adjust the controls to their liking.

Special tools can also be applied from the Effects menu. Users will need to drag it directly on top of the footage to apply it.

Users will find it easy to customize the colors of each preset to fit their branding

Customize Presets to Fit Your Brand

Users can easily match the colors of each preset to fit their brand. In the inspector, intuitive controls allow for color changes, scaling, repositioning, and more. And various presets can be customized with brand logos or images.

Custom logos, images and text can be applied to various presets
